COVENANTER'S HYMN.

fBY S. HUNT, JR. We praise thee, O God, in the spirit of truth,
For mercies conferred from thy bountiful store;
Thy guardian grace, from the morning of youth
Hath guided our footsteps, and will evermore.

We praise thee for blessings which yielded relief, When storms of adversity rayaged the breast; When arrows of sorrow, and poisonous grief, Probed deep in the heart, and distracted our res

We praise, thee, and worship thee, Pather of love For pleasure enjoyed in a season of wail; Which shed their effulgence around and above, As beams of the sunset illumine a vale. We praise thee, O God, for the faith of the soul.

And yearnings for part in the mansions of peace. Where centres our all of an infinite whole, Mid homes of the angles, where sufferings cease

We praise thee, O God, for the issue of life, And promise of dwelling in worlds of true bliss; Where all the rude conflicts of passionate strife Are close to the weeping and warring of this. Where, sheltered forever, the blackness of night

No more will o'ershadow the future with gloom Where day beams of glory reveal to our sight.

The rose of hope in perennial bloom. We'll sing of thy greatness, O Infinent One. Till our term of existence is brought to a close;

And trust, when the work of our striving is done,

To rest from our labors, in righteous repose. O holy, indeed, is the calm which extends O'er yonder broad kingdom of sorrowless sighs; Where ill we've encountered triumphantly ends, In that princeless perfection pervading the skies
